

EVANGELISM.

Services at the Tabernacle and Rink.

CLASSES OF CHRISTIANS.
Only Those Who Hunger Extremely Are Fed.

USING THE TEST BALANCE.

Fifty 4,000 people were present at the meeting held at Tabernacle's tabernacle yesterday morning. During the entire service people stood in all the aisles and around the sides of the church. The meeting was opened by the singing of the 12th hymn, beginning:—

I waited for the Lord, my God,
And patiently did bear;

At length to me He did incline;

My voice and cry to hear.

After the hymn Mr. Moody requested the congregation to join in silent prayer in response to the following request which had been handed in:—"A widow requests prayer for her two sons that they may be converted." "A mother requests prayer for her two sons and daughters; also for a sick son, that he may be restored." "A sister requests prayer for a brother who is drinking hard; that he may see the evil of his ways." "Prayer is requested in behalf of a dear friend, who is gone so far in drunkenness that it is impossible for him to resist the temptation." After a few moments of silent prayer for these requests a prayer was offered by E. W. Howley. Then the twenty-ninth hymn of the collection was sung. Mr. Moody, following, said:—

"There are a great many gifts we don't get by asking. Suppose a child comes to its mother and asks her to give him a piece of bread, and then goes off immediately to play. The mother thinks the child is not very hungry, and goes on with her sewing. He comes again and asks her, and goes on playing, and she still gives him what she has. But, oy-by-and-oy, he is real hungry, and he throws down his toy and takes hold of her and says, 'Mother, come.' Now he has got to be reckoning. He began by asking, What we want is to get beyond the first class; let us go to seeking, and if it does not come out the reason, But here another verse needs to come in—If I garnet inquiry in my heart than you will not hear me, much less answer me."
